Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy

S&R Construction Ltd is committed to driving out acts of modern day slavery and human trafficking within its business and that from its supply chains including sub-contractors and partners.

The company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation.

As part of the company’s due diligence processes into slavery and human trafficking the supplier approval process will incorporate a review of the controls undertaken by the supplier.

The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking.

The Directors and Senior Management shall take responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives providing suitable training and investment to ensure to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation.

A full copy of this policy is available electronically and is accessible from the H&R Dept. on request.

This Policy Statement will be reviewed annually and fully supports the policies and procedures within our ISO 9001:2015.
